JFA Count Two: The maximum statutory penalty for the offense charged in Count Two of the Indictment, is a term of imprisonment of not less than five (5) years, but not more than life imprisonment; and a term of supervised release of not more than five (5) years. The Court may also impose a fine not to exceed $250,000.00, pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Sections 924(c)(1)(A)(i), 3571(b)(3), and 3583(b)(1).

However, for purposes of this plea agreement, the defendant is being held responsible for the possession with intent to distribute at least 2 kilograms but less than 3.5 kilograms of cocaine. Therefore, if the Court accepts this stipulation, the defendant faces a minimum term of imprisonment of five (5) years up to a maximum term of imprisonment of eighty (80) years, a fine not to exceed ten million dollars ($10,000,000.00), and a term of supervised release of not less than eight (8) years in addition to any term of incarceration, pursuant to Title 21, United States Code, Sections 841(b)(1)(B), 846, and 860.

4. Sentencing Guidelines Applicability

Defendant understands that the sentence will be imposed by the Court in accordance with 18 U.S.C. § § 3551-86, and the United States Sentencing Guidelines (hereinafter "Guidelines"), which are advisory pursuant to the United States Supreme Court decision in United States v. Booker, 543 U.S. 220 (2005). Further, Defendant acknowledges that parole has been abolished, and that the imposition of Defendant's sentence may not be suspended.

5. Special Monetary Assessment

Defendant agrees to pay a special monetary assessment ("SMA") of one hundred dollars ($100.00) per count of conviction. The SMA will be deposited in the Crime Victim Fund, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3013 (a)(2)(A).

6. Fines and Restitution

C.F.J. The Court may, pursuant to Section 5E1.2 of the Guidelines order Defendant to pay a fine. The Court may also impose restitution. Defendant agrees to execute and make available, prior to sentencing, a standardized financial statement (OBD Form 500). 7. Sentence to be Determined by the Court JEP Defendant understands that the sentence to be imposed will be determined solely by the United States District Judge. The United States cannot make and has not made any promise or representation as to what sentence Defendant will receive. Any discussions that the parties might have had about possible sentences are not binding in any way on the Court, and do not constitute representations about what the parties will seek, or what the actual sentence will be.

8. Recommended Sentencing Guidelines Calculations

After due consideration of the relevant factors enumerated in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a), the United States and Defendant submit that the advisory Guidelines calculations listed below apply to Defendant. However, Defendant acknowledges that the Court is not required to accept those recommended Guidelines calculations.

9. Sentence Recommendation

After due consideration of the relevant factors enumerated in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a), the parties agree that as to Count Two in case number 17-187 (PAD), the parties agree to request a sentence of imprisonment of sixty (60) months imprisonment, regardless of criminal history category. The defendant recognizes there is a sixty (60) month minimum mandatory sentence, which must be served consecutive to the sentence imposed in Count One in 19-75 (GAG), and any other sentence imposed.

As to Count One in case number 19-75 (GAG), and after due consideration of the relevant factors enumerated in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a), the parties agree the parties will request a sentence of one hundred twenty (120) months imprisonment, regardless of criminal history category. The defendant understands this Count carries a minimum mandatory sentence of sixty (60) months imprisonment. The parties also understand that the agreed upon sentencing recommendation may constitute a variant sentence.

C.F.J.
The defendant reserves the right to request the sentence imposed in Count One in case number 19-75 (GAG) run concurrent with the sentence imposed in local criminal cases. The defendant understands he cannot receive a concurrent sentence as to Count Two in case number 17-187 (PAD).

The total sentence recommendation as to both cases is one hundred eighty (180) months imprisonment.

The parties agree that any recommendation by either party for a term of imprisonment below or above the stipulated sentence recommendation will constitute a material breach of the Plea Agreement.

10. No Stipulation as to Criminal History Category

The parties do not stipulate as to any Criminal History Category for Defendant.

11. Waiver of Appeal

Defendant knowingly and voluntarily agrees that, if the imprisonment sentence imposed by the Court as to Count Two in case number 17-187 (PAD) is sixty (60) months and as to Count One in case number 19-75 (GAG) is one hundred twenty (120) months or less; for a total of one hundred eighty (180) months imprisonment or less, Defendant waives the right to appeal any aspect of this case's judgment and sentence, including, but not limited to the term of imprisonment or probation, restitution, fines, forfeiture, and the term and conditions of supervised release.

12. No Further Adjustments or Departures

C.F.J.
JGO
The United States and Defendant agree that no further adjustments or departures to Defendant's total adjusted base offense level and no variant sentence under 18 U.S.C. § 3553—other than any explicitly provided for in this Plea Agreement—shall be sought by Defendant. The parties agree that any request by Defendant for an adjustment or departure that is not explicitly provided for in this Plea Agreement will be considered a material breach of this Plea Agreement, and the United States will be free to ask for any sentence, either guideline or statutory.

13. Satisfaction with Counsel

Defendant is satisfied with counsel, Jason Gonzalez-Delgado, Esq., and asserts that counsel has rendered effective legal assistance.

14. Rights Surrendered by Defendant Through Guilty Plea

Defendant understands that by entering into this Plea Agreement, Defendant surrenders and waives certain rights as detailed in this agreement. Defendant understands that the rights of criminal defendants include the following:

- a. If Defendant had persisted in a plea of not guilty to the charges, Defendant would have had the right to a speedy jury trial with the assistance of counsel. The trial may be conducted by a judge sitting without a jury if Defendant, the United States and the judge agree.

- C.F.J.
- J.S.
- b. If a jury trial is conducted, the jury would be composed of twelve lay persons selected at random. Defendant and Defendant's attorney would assist in selecting the jurors by removing prospective jurors for cause where actual bias or other disqualification is shown, or by removing prospective jurors without cause by exercising peremptory challenges. The jury would have to agree, unanimously, before it could return a verdict of either guilty or not guilty. The jury would be instructed that Defendant is presumed innocent, that it could not convict Defendant unless, after hearing all the evidence, it was persuaded of Defendant's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt, and that it was to consider each charge separately.
 - c. If a trial is held by the judge without a jury, the judge would find the facts and, after hearing all the evidence and considering each count separately, determine whether or not the evidence established Defendant's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt.
 - d. At a trial, the United States would be required to present its witnesses and other evidence against Defendant. Defendant would be able to confront those witnesses and Defendant's attorney would be able to cross-examine them. In turn, Defendant could present witnesses and other evidence on Defendant's own behalf. If the witnesses for Defendant would not appear voluntarily, Defendant could require their attendance through the subpoena power of the Court.
 - e. At a trial, Defendant could rely on the privilege against self-incrimination to decline to testify, and no inference of guilt could be drawn from Defendant's refusal to testify. If Defendant desired to do so, Defendant could testify on Defendant's own behalf.

15. Stipulation of Facts

The accompanying Stipulation of Facts signed by Defendant is hereby incorporated into this Plea Agreement. Defendant adopts the Stipulation of Facts and agrees that the facts therein are accurate in every respect. Defendant agrees and accepts that had the matter proceeded to trial, the United States would have proven those facts beyond a reasonable doubt.

16. Limitations of Plea Agreement

This Plea Agreement binds only the United States Attorney's Office for the District of Puerto Rico and Defendant. It does not bind any other federal district, state, or local authorities.

17. Entirety of Plea Agreement

C.F.J.
This written agreement constitutes the complete Plea Agreement between the United States, Defendant, and Defendant's counsel. The United States has made no promises or representations except as set forth in writing in this Plea Agreement and denies the existence of any other terms and conditions not stated herein.

18. Amendments to Plea Agreement

JFO
No other promises, terms or conditions will be entered into between the parties unless they are in writing and signed by all parties.

19. Dismissal of Remaining Counts

At sentencing should there be any pending counts and should the Defendant comply with the terms of this Plea Agreement, the United States will move to dismiss the remaining counts of the Indictment pending against Defendant in this case.

20. Voluntariness of Plea Agreement

Defendant acknowledges that no threats have been made against Defendant and that Defendant is pleading guilty freely and voluntarily because Defendant is guilty.

21. Breach and Waiver

O.F.J.
Defendant agrees that defendant will have breached this Plea Agreement if, after entering into this Plea Agreement, Defendant: (a) fails to perform or to fulfill completely each and every one of Defendant's obligations under this Plea Agreement; (b) engages in any criminal activity prior to sentencing; or (c) attempts to withdraw Defendant's guilty plea. In the event of such a breach, the United States will be free from its obligation under this Plea Agreement and Defendant will not have the right to withdraw the guilty plea. Moreover, Defendant agrees that if Defendant is in breach of the Plea Agreement, Defendant is deemed to have waived any objection to the reinstatement of any charges under the Indictment, Information, or complaint which may have previously been dismissed or which may have not been previously prosecuted.

22. Potential Impact on Immigration Status

J.F.J.
Pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11(b)(1)(O), Defendant hereby agrees and recognizes that if convicted, a Defendant who is not a United States citizen may be removed from the United States, denied citizenship, and denied admission to the United States in the future.

23. Felony Conviction

Defendant hereby agrees and recognizes that the plea of guilty in this case will be recognized as a felony conviction, which will result in the loss of certain rights, including but not limited to the right to vote in a federal election, to serve as a juror, to hold public office, and to lawfully possess a firearm.

24. Firearms and Ammunition Forfeiture

JFO
Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 924(d) and 28 U.S.C. § 2461(c), Defendant agrees to forfeit Defendant's rights and interest any firearms and ammunition involved or used in the commission of the offense, including, but not limited to: a Glock pistol, Model 23, .40 caliber, bearing serial number BCY-215US; a twelve-round capacity .40 caliber ammunition magazine; a twenty-two round capacity .40 caliber magazine; and twenty-three rounds of .40 caliber ammunition.

STIPULATION OF FACTS

In conjunction with the submission of the accompanying Plea Agreement in this case, the Defendant Christian Fernandez-Jorge admits that Defendant is guilty as charged in the Indictment and admits the following:

17-187 (PAD)

On March 9, 2017, Christian Fernandez-Jorge was arrested by the United States Marshals at apartment #6 in Barrio Tejas, Sector Jagüeyes, Carr. 908, KM 9.4, in Yabucoa, Puerto Rico pursuant to a federal arrest warrant for supervised release violations. Inside the aforementioned apartment, the U.S. Marshals seized a Glock pistol, Model 23, .40 caliber, bearing serial number BCY-215US; a twelve-round capacity .40 caliber ammunition magazine; a twenty-two round capacity .40 caliber magazine; twenty-three rounds of .40 caliber ammunition; distribution amounts of marijuana; and a drug ledger.

After his arrest, Christian Fernandez-Jorge waived his constitutional rights and spoke to federal agents. Fernandez-Jorge admitted ownership of the evidence seized.

19-75 (GAG)

Beginning on a date unknown, but no later than in or about the year 2011, and continuing up to and until the return of the instant Indictment, in the Municipalities of Humacao and San Juan, District of Puerto Rico and within the jurisdiction of this Court, [4] Christian Fernandez-Jorge and co-conspirators, did knowingly and intentionally, combine, conspire, and agree with each other and with diverse other persons known and unknown to the Grand Jury, to commit an offense against the

O.F.J.
 J.F.

United States, that is, to knowingly and intentionally possess with intent to distribute controlled substances, to wit: in excess of two hundred and eighty (280) grams of a mixture or substance containing a detectable amount of cocaine base (crack), a Schedule II Narcotic Drug Controlled Substance; in excess of one (1) kilogram of a mixture or substance containing a detectable amount of heroin, a Schedule I, Narcotic Drug Controlled Substance; in excess of five (5) kilograms or more of a mixture or substance containing a detectable amount of cocaine, a Schedule II, Narcotic Drug Controlled Substance; a mixture or substance containing a detectable amount of marihuana, a Schedule I, Controlled Substance; a mixture or substance containing a detectable amount of Oxycodone (commonly known as Percocet), a Schedule II Controlled Substance; and a mixture or substance containing a detectable amount of Alprazolam (commonly known as Xanax), a Schedule IV Controlled Substance; within one thousand (1,000) feet of the real property comprising a housing facility owned by a public housing authority, that is, the Dr. Pedro J. Palou Public Housing Project and the Jardines del Oriente (Los Condos) Public Housing Project, and other areas; and within one thousand (1,000) feet of the Rufino Vigo Elementary School. All in violation of Title 21, United States Code, Sections 841(a)(1), (b)(1)(A), 846, and 860.

Specifically, [4] Christian Fernandez-Jorge acted as an administrator/supervisor, enforcer, and runner for this drug trafficking organization. In this conspiracy, enforcers possessed, carried, brandished, used, and discharged firearms to protect the leaders and members of the drug trafficking organization, the controlled substances, the proceeds derived from their sales, and to further accomplish the goals of the conspiracy. Enforcers provided protection to the public housing projects and the drug distribution points by keeping watch (looking out) for enemies while they possessed, carried, brandished, used, and discharged firearms. During the course of the conspiracy, several kilograms of cocaine, cocaine base (crack), heroin, a detectable amount of marijuana, and Oxycodone and Alprazolam were sold. However, for purposes of his plea agreement, the defendant is admitting to possession with intent to distribute at least 2 kilograms but less than 3.5 kilograms of cocaine. All this occurred within 1,000 feet of a real property comprising a housing facility owned by a public housing authority and within 1,000 feet of a property comprising a public or private elementary, vocational, or secondary school.

Had this matter proceeded to trial, the United States would have presented evidence through the testimony of witnesses as well as physical evidence and documentary evidence, which would have proven beyond a reasonable doubt Defendant's guilt.

INTENTIONALLY BLANK

At trial, the United States would have proven beyond a reasonable doubt that defendant Christian Fernandez-Jorge is guilty as charged in Count Two of case number 17-187 (PAD) and Count One in case number 19-75 (GAG). Discovery was timely made available to Defendant for review.
